GIRL KILLED BY LOVE-CRAZED MAN

Green-Eyed Monster Causes Him to Slay His Young Cousin.

VICTIM 15 YEARS OLD

Murderer Shoots Neighbor Who Interfered—Had Intended to Commit Suicide, but Fails to Do So.

Williamsport, Pa., July 22.—Eva, fifteen-year-old daughter of Andrew Christian, a farmer who lives near Westfield, Tioga County, died in the Blossburg Hospital yesterday afternoon from gunshot wounds inflicted by her cousin, Simon Christian, aged 24, who shot the girl when she refused to marry him. Christian also shot and wounded Henry Hackett, a farmer, when, it is said, the latter interfered.

The shooting occurred in the home of Andrew Christian Monday night, and the young fellow is now in the Tioga County jail at Wellsboro, where he is being held pending an inquest.

Christian had been attentive to his cousin for some time, but his suit was not favored either by the girl or her parents. He had asked her to marry him repeatedly, and had also sought the consent of her parents, but was always refused. The young man had always taken the refusal with good grace, however, and he was a frequent visitor in the home of his uncle.

On Monday evening he went to the Christian home and finding the girl alone, demanded that she accompany him. When she refused, an argument followed and in the midst of a wordy battle he drew a revolver and declared that he would shoot both her and himself. He turned on the girl, firing several shots at her. One took effect in her breast, and she sank to the floor.

As he turned the gun on himself Hackett, who is a neighbor of the Christians, came in the door. Instead of shooting himself, young Christian fired a bullet into Hackett.

The shooting attracted other members of the Christian family, to the house, and they captured Christian. A physician was called and the wounded girl and man were placed in a farm wagon, and driven to Blossburg, while Christian was taken to Wellsboro.

Hackett's wound is serious, but he will recover. Despite the efforts of the hospital doctors to prolong her life, the girl sank rapidly until her death yesterday afternoon.

JEALOUS ADMIRER KILLS.

Shoots Mrs. Sykes Rather Than Let Her Return to Husband.

Los Angeles, July 22.—Fears that Mrs. Edna Sykes, 27 years of age, would return to Norcross, Ga., and effect a reconciliation with her husband, a banker there, is believed by her friends to have led to her death Monday at the hands of Charles H. Hang, a contractor, who then killed himself.

Mrs. Sykes recently filed suit for divorce, but was said to receive $150 monthly from her husband and letters urging her to return, and friends said she had decided to stop seeing Hang.

When he called at her residence and learned that she was asleep he burst into her bedroom and shot her.

BULLET IN WOMAN'S HEAD.

Finding of Body Near Galveston Believed to Disclose Murder.

Galveston, Texas, July 22.—The body of a well-dressed young woman with a bullet hole in the head was found on the beach west of this city early yesterday. The police believe the woman was murdered. There was no jewelry or other means of immediate identification.

One of the victim's shoes was found some distance inshore, which was taken to indicate the body had been dragged to the beach after the shooting.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Six persons were killed and fifteen injured in the wreck of two passenger trains, carrying many foreign tourists at Empalot Bridge, near Toulouse, France, early yesterday.

Without food, clothing, or money, 75,000 men, women, and children are near starvation in the mining districts of Eastern Ohio, according to C. J. Albasin, miners' president of subdistrict No. 5, who is in Cleveland making an appeal for these stricken people. He says 14,500 miners have been out of employment in his district since April 1, with only $37.50 each in union benefits since that time. They and their families are starving, says Albasin, some of them being near death.

Arthur Simons, a farm hand of Alexander, N. Y., 27 years old, shot his cousin, Iva Christian, 16 years old, at her home near Knoxville, Pa., Monday night on her refusal to marry him. Simons also shot Hiram Hackett twice when the latter went to the girl's rescue. Hackett will recover, but the girl's wound will prove fatal. Simons was taken into custody.

For the first time in the modern history of England the King yesterday recognized that the cry of civil war was on the lips of many of his responsible and sober-minded subjects in connection with the Irish Home Rule crisis. His speech to the leaders of the various parties called together in conference at Buckingham Palace was very grave in its tone, as he told them he regarded them as the trustees for the honor and peace of all and left them to confer in view of reaching a settlement.

Mme. Cayat de Castella was dashed to death last night from a height of 1,000 feet at Brussels. A new parachute which she was testing from the biplane of Aviator Champel failed to work, and thousands of spectators, among them her husband, saw her drop.

Dispatches from Vienna and other capitals indicate growing tension in the relations between Austria and Servia. It is asserted by Austrian newspapers that an investigation into the recent assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand and his wife at Sarajevo, tends to establish at least the indirect complicity of Servia and that the Austrian government will make strong representations at Belgrade on the subject. A prominent Cracow newspaper declares that Austria is determined to use this opportunity to settle in her own favor both the Servian and Albanian questions, and that she is negotiating to this end with Turkey and Bulgaria. Rumors of a possible war caused a semipanic on the Berlin and Vienna courses yesterday.

By announcing in the House that his resignation had been telegraphed to the Governor of Illinois, Representative James T. McDermott, of Chicago, whose name was involved in the recent lobby disclosures headed off action by his coleagues. Representative Floyd, of Arkansas, chairman of a judiciary subcommittee, had already announced that he would bring the whole matter before the House for consideration today.

A PROCLAMATION.

To the Officers Charged with the Duty of Conducting Elections Throughout the State of Virginia:

Pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Assembly, approved February 18, 1914, I hereby give notice that an election will be held at all of the voting precincts in this Commonwealth, on Tuesday, September 22, 1914, between the hours of sunrise and sunset, on the question of prohibiting the manufacture for sale and the sale of intoxicating liquors in this State.

Given under my hand this July 14, 1914.

ALEXANDRIANS REACH THE CAMP

Blistering Sun Greets the Soldiers When They Arrive at Gordonsville.

LARGE ENCAMPMENT

Assemblage of Military Greater than any Ever Seen in Quiet Village Since the Civil War.

Instruction Camp, Gordonsville, Va., July 22.—Under a hot blistering July sun the Virginia militia went into camp here yesterday. Train after train bearing the flower of the Virginia citizen-soldiery, among them the Alexandria Light Infantry, numbering 42, arrived and discharged its cargo of living freight, until just as dusk was creeping over the hills surrounding this pretty little village, the last company arrived at the grounds, and began to prepare for the first night under canvas.

Never in the history of the town, with the possible exception of one or two periods during the Civil War, has Gordonsville been so completely in the hands of the military. There being no routine to observe, yesterday, the men were given liberty as soon as the tents were pitched, and other camp duties arranged satisfactorily. A steady stream of militiamen filed out to the town after supper, until the big camp was all but deserted.

Troops arriving here found all in readiness for them.

There will be 2,000 enlisted men and officers here for ten days. Although many companies reported difficulty in getting the men off for the trip, all showed up with the minimum of thirty-eight men and three officers. There is a company of regular infantrymen, and a detachment of mounted scouts on duty with the volunteer forces.

Colonel W. T. Wilder, commandment of Fort Meyer, who is in command of the camp, reached Gordonsville on Sunday afternoon, and at once took charge of affairs.

The camp site is an admirable one. It is situated less than half a mile from the town of Gordonville, on easy rolling ground. In sight, on all sides, are high hills. While the heat on the first day was intense, the tents were soon up,, and sheltered the men from the broiling sun.

Never in the history of Virginia has there been such a large gathering of its militia in times of peace. There are thirty-nine companies of infantry, two regimental bands, a hospital corps, in addition to the brigade, regimental and batallion staffs. The whole camp is on a war footing, only the necessaries of a soldier's life being included in the equipment brought here by the militiamen. All of their personal baggage was carried in haversacks, and they are expected to show the War Department what Virginia could do if called upon to furnish its quota for the defense of the nation.

There is no time for frivolities, although each man has been put on a honor system, which gives him his liberty, whenever his work is finished, although an abuse of the privilege will mean that he will not be permitted to leave the boundaries of the camp.

MOTORMAN BLAMED.

For the Disastrous Collision Near Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., July 22.—Responsibility for the collisiin last Friday between an interurban Ocean View trolley and Virginian Railroad coal train, which caused death to six and injuries to 19 persons, was placed yesterday in the joint inquiry of the Interstate Commerce Commission and State Corporation Commission upon Motorman W K. Atkinson An affidavit was submitted today by Atkinson, in which he stated that his mind was a complete blank for a few moments before the smash. He said he lost consciousness for a brief lapse, recovering to see the red signal lights too late to prevent the crash.

KILLED BY VILLA'S ORDER

French Charge Tells Wilson This is Report Received About Christian Brothers.

Washington, July 22.—Representations that the two French citizens, members of the Christian Brothers organizations, recently killed at Zacatecas, were executed at the direct orders of General Villa, were laid before President Wilson yesterday by Charge d'Affaires Clausse who told the President that his Government was deeply disturbed over the killing of the Frenchmen and the imprisonment of 11 others by the Constitutionalists and that active steps for reparation were earnestly sought.

According to M. Clausse an investigation into the deaths has been ordered by General Carranza. He said the reason given by the Constitutionalists for the killing of the two Frenchmen was that they protected some Federals. He also told the President that the reason for the executions learned by the French Embassy was that the two men had refused to pay money to the Constitutionalists. The embassy's information is from witnesses of the affair.

M. Clausse asked that representations be made that the responsibility for the executions be definitely placed. He informed the President that next to Spanish priests the greatest number of foreign clergymen in Mexico were French and that the protection of those men was earnestly desired.

The future policy of the United States with reference to the disposition of American warships in Mexican waters has not been determined, Secretary Daniels said today.

TEN CARDINALS TO ATTEND.

International Eucharistic Congress Begins Today at Lourdes.

Lourdes, France, July 22.—Ten Cardinals, among them Cardinal Farley, of New York; 260 archbishops and bishops from all parts of the world are to attend the International Eucharistic Congress to be held here this year, starting today and lasting until July 26.

Especial importance is attached to the conference this year, not only because it is the first in France since the separation of church and state, but because it is the twenty-fifth anniversary of the foundation of this world-wide movement, the first conference having taken place in Lillie in 1889.

The Pope will be represented by Cardinal Granito di Belmonte-Gennaro, who will preside over the sessions of the Congress. Every day there will be held meetings of the various sections,, the most important of which are the French, British, American, Italian, Czech, Austrian, German, Spanish, Flemish, Wallonian, Polish and Hungarian. A general assembly of all the delegates will take place July 25 to consider the resolutions of the various committees,

Among other representatives from the United States will be Monsignor Joseph Freri, of the Society of the Propagation of the aFith, New York.

On Sunday morning the presiding Cardinal will celebrate a pontifical high mass before a temporary altar erected in front of the historical grotto, assisted by several of the Cardinals, and a picked choir of 200 voices. The space between the grotto and the river will be reserved for the Cardinals, archbishops, bishops, and personages of distinction. The lesser dignitaries, delegates nad spectators will be ranged on the meadoows opposite, which slope down to the river, forming a vast natural amphitheatre.

In the afternoon there will be a great ecclesiastical procession led by the Papal Legate, bearing aloft the Blessed Sacrament and followed by academicians, deputies, senators, and members of various Catholic organizations, in full-dress uniform. Two stops will be made along the way at the Altars of Repose which have been erected at the market place, and at the Municipal Hospital, of Bernadette, where the Cardinal will administer benedictions.

The procession will terminate at the Church of Rosary, where a temporary altar has been erected on the top of the dome, and where the Cardinal will give a final benediction to the multitudes in the open square below.

MADAME CAILLAUX PLACED ON TRIAL

Attempts to Impeach Husband Fail When Agadir Papers Are Sprung.

ARE ALLEGED MYTHS

Politics Interjected into Trial—Alleged Whitewashing—Brain Storm Plea of Defense.

Paris, July 22.—As a result of his demand made upon the government, Maitre Labori, famed as the defender of Captain Dreyfus, today scored his first victory in the trial of Mme. Caillaux for the killing of Gaston Calmette.

Prosecutor Herbaux, on behalf of the government, declared in open court that the alleged Agadir documents, implicating Caillaux in a scandal in connection with Moroccan affairs do not exist. The announcement was immediately followed by a demonstration on the part of friends of the dead editor.

Counsel representing the Calmette interests protested violently, declaring the trial "was becoming a political white-washing for Caillaux."

Labori had demanded just before adjournment yesterday that the prosecutor state whether papers were in existence attacking the honor of Caillaux and declaring he would withdraw from the case unless an answer was forthcoming. He accepted the statement of Herbaux today and Caillaux returned to the stand.

The former prime minister vigorously defended his patriotism. He challenged any one to show that he had ever acted with any thought than for the glory and advancement of the republic. As Caillaux proceeded in the defense of his political acts and in denouncing the measures taken in the attacks upon him, those in the court room were roused to feverish excitement.

There were cheers mingled with hisses, and hostile manifestations against the witness.

Throughout the time her husband was on the stand, Mme. Caillaux hardly took her eyes from him. Every gesture was followed, as he defended his own acts and defied his enemies.

ORDERS PROSECUTION.

President Wilson Directs Attorney General to Proceed Against Directors.

The President last night directed Attorney General McReynolds to begin the biggest criminal prosecution ever contemplated by the United States government under the Sherman anti-trust law.

He instructed Mr. McReynolds to lay before a grand jury charges against the directors of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company. Some of these directors are the most important financiers of the country.

Imprisonment and heavy fines are the penalties if convictions are obtained. The directors are accused of the formation of a gigantic traffic monopoly in New England, and crushing competition in interstate commerce.

The President also directed Mr. McReynolds to begin a civil suit for the dissolution of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company, designed to cut loose its 336 subsidiary ship lines, trolley lines, and steam lines, accumulated under one mangemnt in what the Interstate Commerce Commission recently styled "one of the most glaring instances of maladministration revealed in all the history of American railroading."

This action followed the refusal of the directors of the New Haven to fulfill the agreement reached last January for the voluntary dissolution of the system. The directors balked at legislation just enacted by the legislature of Massachusetts to permit this dissolution.

AUTO CUTS HIS THROAT.

Virginian Gets Unusual and Serious Wound When Run Over.

Washington, July 22.—His throat cut as though by a razor, Ollie E. Jordan, 45 years old, of Dublin, Pulaski county, Va., is at Emergency Hospital in a serious condition as a result of being struck by an automobile yesterday afternoon in Pennsylvania avenue near Sixth street. He was taken to the hospital in an automobile of a passerby.

HIBERNIANS AT NORFOLK.

Four Thousand Delegates and Visitors Attend Convention.

Norfolk, Va., July 22.—The forty-ninth biennial convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in America opened for a five days' session yesterday morning with solemn high mass at St. Mary's Catholic Church and a sermon by Bishop O'Connell, of Richmond. At noon the Hibernians and members of the ladies' auxiliary gathered in the Wells Theater, when the convention was formally opened. Following the open session the delegates went into executive session at the Wells Theatre and the ladies' auxiliary at the Colonial Theatre.

John J. Blake, of Richmond, State president for Virginia, welcomed the visitors. He was followed by Mayor W. R. Mayo, of Norfolk, who welcomed the convention on behalf of the city. Mrs. Ellen Ryan Jolly, national president of the ladies' auxiliary, responded to Mayor Mayo. The convention was closed with address by James J. Regan, national president of the order.

About 4,000 delegates and visitors are here. Many enjoyed the beach during the afternoon. Last night there was a huge ball.

WOOD NYMPH ARRESTED.

Young Woman Causes Sensation in Pennsylvania.

Dunbar, Pa., July 22.—Garbed as nature adorned her, with only a sparkling fleck of dew here and there to heighten the startling effect on the grass-covered meadow lands, Mabel Wallace, a surprisingly pretty girl, was arrested Monday evening near Juniata by Constable William Roland and taken to Leisenring, where she was given a hearing today before Squire Graham. She was later committed to jail.

It developed during the hearing that the Rainey coke interests had demanded the capture and arrest of the wood nymph, whose playful moods in the shady dells of the region have proved such a magnet for the male population that the small towns were in danger of being depopulated of all the men folks, and it would soon be impossible to keep men to fire the ovens while she was in the neighborhood.

CARBAJAL WILL RESIST CARRANZA

Not to Surrender Mexico City Unconditionally to Rebel Army.

ISSUE WITH FRANCE

Wilson Bids Revolutionists to Avoid Feud—Feeling of Pessimism on Amicable Settlement.

Washington, D. C., July 22.—Provisional President Carbajal does not intend to surrender unconditionally to General Carranza and will concentrate his military forces and resist an invasion rather than permit the Constitutionalists to enter Mexico City without previous agreements not to wreak vengeance on the lives and property of those who supported General Huerta.

This is the tenor of information from authoriatives sources in Mexico City to Washington diplomats. It has spread a feeling of pessimism in some quarters over the possibility of an amicable settlement of the revolution.

In some diplomatic quarters there is a disposition to regard the situation as unfavorable.

An aspect of the situation which was commented upon was the knowledge that General Carranza, while informing the American Consuls at Monterey, that he would receive a commission from Carbajal, made it plain that he would do so only to arrange the unconditional surrender by the Mexico City authorities.

These uncomprising terms have puzzled diplomats who were hoping for a quick solution. They believe the decisive influence for peace or a continuation of the civil strife rests with the United States. There was no indication today how far the American Government was prepared to exert pressure on Carranza to obtain an amnesty and guarantees.

Diplomats were watching with keen interest the reports stating that General Villa was again threatening a break with Carranza. The death of two French clergymen and the imprisonment of 11 others is giving the French government much concern. Charge Clausse, of the French Embassy, presented to President Wilson urgent representations in that connection late today.

Washington, July 22.—Despite the reports from Mexico that the entire constitutionalist army is being massed to take Mexico City by assault, if necessary, Administration leaders continue confident that this will not happen. They base their hopes on the statements made by Francisco Calderon to the President that "Carranza is anxious to end the war without unnecessary bloodshed." Calderon is going direct to Monterey to join Carranza, and expects on his arrival there to be named to confer with representatives of Acting President Carbajal to arrange for the latter's surrender of the government.

Meanwhile the Administration is working hard in an effort to solidify the Constitutionalists. Reports that counter revolutions are already being planned have stirred the President.

DIPLOMAT IN FIST FIGHT.

F. M. Gunther Knocks Off Cap of Christiania's Harbor Master.

Christiania, July 22.—A serious quarrel occurred here Monday on board the American steam yacht Pauline between Franklin M. Gunther, secretary of the American legation and the harbor master. The trouble arose over a request of the harbor master for the Pauline to change her anchorage, as she was occupying the space reserved for the German Emperor's yacht Meteor and other foreign racing craft.

Mr. Gunther protested angrily against the harbor master's orders, and, it is said, ended the quarrel by knocking the official's cap off his head. During the trouble a woman guest on board the Pauline endeavored to soothe the disputants. The affair has created much discussion here.

REVIVAL IN BUSINESS

Retail Merchants See Indications of Expansion of Alexandria's Trade.

Indications of a decided revival in the retail business of Alexandria and northern counties of Virginia were reported to the meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association of Alexandria, which met last night in its rooms on Prince street. It was one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings that has been held in some months and as a result, the members are very greatly encouraged over the outlook for a very successful fall trade. Members who have visited the country districts in this vicinity declare that the crops will be unusually large this year and that the farmers will be correspondingly prosperous. Indications of a general business revival over the entire country were reported.

Two new members, the Leader Clothing Co., and Abe Cohen, were elected to membership in the association. One firm, which had withdrawn, was reinstated.

Robert E. Knight, State vice-presithorities of this city have undertaken ciation, of Virginia, made a report on the recent meeting of that organization and outlined the work that the association is doing to secure a uniform tax law favorable to the merchants of the State. Representatives of the association will shortly appear before the Tax Commission, which was recently appointed to equalize the State taxes.

The association adjourned until the third week of October.

BEARS NAMES OF ENGINEERS.

Southern Railway Locomotives Now Known as Individuals.

Some of the engines of the Southern Railway are now bearing the names of their drivers—that is such as have passed 65,000 miles posts without having been sent to the shops.

When the Washington Division of the Southern Railway was known as the Orange and Alexandria Railroad in by-gone years the locomotives were named after cities and counties through which the road passed. They were known as the Alexandria, Fairfax, Prince William, Culpeper, Fauquier, Orange, Madison, Rappahannock, Albemarle, Nelson, Amherst, Campbell, etc. One was known as the Cameron and another as the Prince William. After the close of the civil war names were superseded by numbers.

Venturesome Youths Reach Norfolk on Way to Land of Flowers.

A canoe, bearing two young men from Washington, passed Alexandria last week. The occupants of the tiny craft purpose to excel Captain John Smith, who made a trip from Old Point to what is now Washington in an open boat. Their objective point is Florida.

The venturesome young men, who evidently believe that in order to achieve success in any enterprise one must "paddle his own canoe," arrived in Norfolk on a trip from the national capital to Palm Beach.

The adventures are F. D. Ramsdell and R. E. Boss, members of the Raccar Canoe Club, of Washington, D. C. They are paddling a 17-foot canoe. The canoe is equipped with pretty much everything but motive power, which is furnished by the arms of the occupants.

Included in the canoe's equipment is a serviceable tent, 5x7 feet in size, under the protection of which the canoeists find shelter at convenient spots on shore along their route. There are also watertight canvas bags for the young men's clothing and their provisions. Cooking is done over an open grate when the canoeists are encamped on shore.

Messrs. Ramsdell and Boss left Washington in their canoe last Wednesday morning at 4:30 o'clock. They had pleasant weather down the Potomac until they arrived at a point off Colonial Beach, then they ran into a storm that taxed their skill as canoeists. Another storm ran them aground on Tangier Island. After considerable delay they started off for Norfolk and arrived there Monday morning safe nad sound.

In the evening they left via the Dismal Swamp canal for Elizabeth City N. C. which will be their first stop en route to Florida. They expect to arrive at Key West about the middle of August.

THE PIN OAK CLUB.

Pleasant Scenes Incident to Birthday Celebration.

Under the largest oak tree of which Fairfax county can boost, overlooking the Potomac Bay, in view of the tomb of Washington, stands the residence of the "Pin Oak Club." Yesterday was the birthday of one of its members and scores of Alexandrians were present as well as persons from Washington and Baltimore all of whom were royaly entertained.

About 9:30 all arrangements were completed for a balloon ascension and it was successfully executed. Fireworks were in evidence and the skies reflected the enjoyment of a day happily spent.

Messrs. John L. Proctor and Frank Hale saw to the comfort of the guests.

FIREMEN ELECT DELEGATES

Reliance Company Names Representatives to Attend Portsmouth Meeting.

Arrangements for attending the state convention of the Virginia Firemen's Association, which will be held in Portsmouth, Va., August 26, 27th and 28th, were made last night by the members of the Reliance Steam Engine Company. The following were elected delegates to the association: Archie Fair, J. Sidney Douglas, Lawrence Lowenback and A. D. Grimes. Alternates chosen were as follows. Conrad Schwab, Harry Padgett, R. D. Catts and C. R. Humjhries. W. M. Glasgow was elected representative vice-president. A called meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company will be held on July 31st fer the purpose of electing delegates.

FINED AND IMPRISONED.

Charles White, a negro, arrested by Officer Norris yesterday evening for stealing harness in Fairfax county, was fined $10 and given six months imprisonment by Justice Kirby this morning. This makes him elligible for the roads. White was arrested while trying to dispose of the harness.

MOTORMAN SAYS HE WAS OVERWORKED.

As had been suggested by the Gazette, the motorman in charge of the train which collided with a coal train near Norfolk last Thursday night, causing the death of seven persons and the injuring of nearly every one on the train, fell asleep from overwork, according to his statements.

Judge William F. Rhea, of the State Corporation Commission, and Inspector A. H. Adams, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, went to St. Vincent's Hospital in Norfolk yesterday and asked W. K. Atkinson, the motorman, to tell them everything he could about the collision.

"I could not, get off to rest, I could not get any relief. I was worked down and in need of sleep I could not get because of the hours I was required to work. I went to sleep."

This statement supplements his sworn affidavit. Atkinson went into detail as to his working hours, and declared he had been in the habit of sleeping at night stretched out on a car seat in the Virginia Railway and Power Company's barns, because there was no time between the hour he went off duty and the time he had to report again for him to go home. Had he gone home, he said, he would have been able to sleep each night from 2:15 to 4:30, a little over two hours. As it was, he usually stretched out on a car seat at 1 or 1:30, and got up to go to work at 5:30, which gave him about four hours' rest. Then in the afternoons he usually went home, he said, and managed to get about two hours' sleep. He said his pay was 18 cents an hour, and out of this he supported a paralyzed father, mother and sister and two brothers.

"A couple of days before I had asked, and I could not get off because they were short of men, It seemed dead or alive you must go," said Atkinson.

ORDERS CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS.

Criminal proceedings before a grand jury to punish the directors of the New Haven and a civil suit to dissolve the railroad combine will be brought immediately by the Department of Justice with the sanction of President Wilson.

"The criminal aspects of the case," Attorney General McReynolds states, "have been kept constantly in mind; much data bearing thereon was collected some months ago and care has been exercised to permit nothing which might interfere with proper prosecutions at the appropriate time. We have not held out the slightest hope that parties guilty of criminal violations of the law would escape."

We do not know what will be the outcome of this movement, but past history shows that when the mighty and opulent have fallen into the net, they are generally allowed to die of old age by arrests of judgment, appeals and the many other avenues open to those who have the means of reaching courts of last resort.

These facts are apparent in cases of national importance, as well as those of a minor nature in every community.

Plutarch in his life of Solon tells us of a visit made to the Athenian lawgiver by Anacharsis. The latter laughed at Solon for imagining the dishonesty and covetousness of his countrymen could be restrained by written laws, which, he said, were like spiders' webs, which can catch the weak and poor, but are easily broken by the mighty and rich.

This safe observation was made over two thousand years ago, and the subsequent history of the world has shown the wisdom of Anacharsis.

THE MAKING OF LAWS.

It is generally agreed that one of the needs of the time is greater respect for the law. It is unquestioned that enforcement of law is necessary. But there is no harmony as to details. It is contended on the one hand that to secure respect for and enforcement of law we must have more laws, and on the other that the real way to arrive at the desired haven is by the way of leniency to all and less lawmaking.

Discussing the problem the other day E. L. Richards, State Superintendent of Banks of New York State, said:

"Legislation has about as cheerful a sound to the business men of my State as the thought of castor oil to the boy who has been nearly physicked to death.

"There are so many pages of statutes in this country, that, if pasted end to end, they would reach from Maine to California, and to enforce them would require 100 attorney generals, 1,000 district attorneys, 1,000,000 policemen at a cost to taxpayers of about $1,000,000,000."

So fast of late years have laws, Federal, State and municipal, piled one on another from law mills in almost constant throes, that the average citizen never feels certain in the morning that, in his ignorance of what is lawful for him to do, he may not before sundown become a technical criminal through violation of some law of which he never heard, or which has come into existence overnight to outlaw acts which but yesterday were perfectly respectable and permissible. The business man feels the thraldom above all other men. And if radicalism is to stay in the saddle much longer he will be made still more to feel it.

Such a state of things cannot tend to produce anything but craftiness, deceit and recklessness. The real need of the hour, if law is to be made respected and is to be enforced, is fewer laws, a ridding of the statute books of useless, cumbersome, unworkable laws and general simplification and adaptation of what remains to the necessities of modern life and business. A good beginning might be made by restricting the output of new laws long enough to give a few of those now in existence a fair trial for traces of efficiency.

Auto Turns Turtle.

Philadelphia, July 22.—Four persons were badly hurt, one of them probably fatally, when an automobile turned turtle on Bustleton pike, near Jackson street, last night, as the result of the slippery condition of the road due to the resurfacing with a new preparation of oil and tar. The injured persons, were on tour from New England to Maryland.

DON'T OVERLOOK THIS.

A Careful Perusal Will Prove Its Value to Every Alexandra Reader.

The average man is a doubter, and there is little wonder that this is so. Misrepresentations make people skeptics. Now-a-days the public ask for better evidence than the testimony of strangers. Here is proof which should convince every Alexandria reader.

Miss Harriett Johnson, 207 Queen St., Alexandria, Va., says: "For two years I had a lot of trouble from my back. As long as I kept still, I got along all right, but as soon as I began to work, I was bothered terribly by backache. A neighbor gave me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Leadbeater & Sons' drug store and they cured me. I have had no symptoms of kidney complaint during the past few years. I willingly confirm my former endorsement."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy; ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Miss Johnson had—the remedy backed by home testimony, 50c at all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

LIGHTNING RESTORES SIGHT.

Aged Woman Says Streak of Red Fire Seemed to Lift Veil.

Camden, N. J., July 22.—Since a lightning bolt passed so near her face as to break her eye-glasses in an electrical storm in Camden, Mrs. Lucella F. Haines, 84, has been able to read distinctly for the first time in several years.

For a long time her sight had been badly impaired, and Mrs. Haines spent most of her time at the front window of her home at 318 West street. While in her accustomed place she was startled by what appeared a streak of red fire passing in front of her face.

Her eye-glasses fell to the floor, but instead of being crushed they were found to have been only slightly damaged, a perfect V formed in one of the lenses.

The screams of the aged woman brought members of the family of Frank Alcott, a nephew with whom she resided. Mrs. Haines was unable to speak at first, but recovered in a few minutes. She then declared that it seemed as though a veil had been lifted from her eyes.

Her sight has been almost entirely restored in one eye, but she has little hope of ever entirely recovering the sight of the other.

100,000 WORKMEN STRIKE.

Lay Down Their Tools as a Protest Against Repressive Measures.

St. Petersburg, July 22.—Serious strike disturbances broke out yesterday in St. Petersburg, where 100,000 workers have laid down their tools as a protest against the measures of the authorities against demonstrating strikers.

The Cossacks were mobilized in the Viborg quarter to disperse the strikers, who indulged in much stone throwing and also fired some revolver shots. The troops succeeded in clearing the streets without resort to bullets, as a couple of pounds of blank cartridges proved sufficient to rout the demonstrators at least temporarily. Several of the strikers were hurt during the disorder.

Later in the morning the strikers made a raid on the street cars, driving out their occupants, overturning the vehicles, and disregarding the orders of the police to disperse.

The conditions are as follows:

1. The present enrollment of the North Carolina Medical College will receive their instruction, beginning with this fall, in the classrooms, hospitals and laboratories of the Medical College of Virginia. No teaching work will be done at the college in Charlotte.

2. Diplomas will be issued and degrees conferred in the name of the North Carolina Medical College, which will remain in legal existence for a term of three years.

3. The North Carolina Medical College, beginning immediately, becomes a Class B institution by order of the Medical Council of the American Medical Association.

HIT BY BASEBALL.

Man Believed to Have Fractured Skull—Condition Is Critical.

Richmond, July 22.—Hit in the head by a pitched ball, John T. West, of 511 North Tenth street, is in St. Elizabeth Hospital, suffering from what is believed to be a fractured skull. He is regarded as in serious condition.

The accident occurred during a game between the Claim Office and Car Service teams of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway offices on Monday afternoon. West was knocked unconscious, but rallied, and was able to make his way home. There he showed no apparent effects of the blow, but early yesterday morning was taken sick and lapsed into unconsciousness. He was hurried to the hospital at once, where Dr. E. W. Gray attended him.

ELOPES WITH BLIND MUSICIAN.

Miss Louise Cromer, Normal School Pupil, Married at Cumberland.

Harrisonburg, Va., July 20.—Miss Louise Elizabeth Cromer, 20 years old, student at the Summer Normal School here, drove to Linville Friday and boarded a train for Cumberland, Md., where she was married Saturday to Manneth Bumphrey, a blind musician, 41 years old, of Petersburg, W. Va.

Miss Cromer was staying at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Wine, while attending the Normal School. She left their home Friday for the avowed purpose of spending Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cromer, of Hinton. Mr. Bumphrey and his bride became acquainted three years ago when he gave a number of concerts in West Rockingham.

Was a Leading Lawyer and Former Mayor of Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va., July 22.—Louis Trapman Hanckel, aged 67 years, one of the best-known members of the Albemarle bar, died yesterday afternoon at his home on Park street.

He was a native of Spartanburg, S. C., and he entered the Confederate Army when a wouth.

MACCABEES TO AMALGAMATE.

New Organization Will Have Headquarters at Detroit, Mich.

Detroit, July 22.—By unanimous vote, delegates representing the Knights of the Maccabees in every State and the Canadian provinces voted here this week in favor of amalgamation of the order with the Knights of the Modern Maccabees. The latter organization ratified the proposed amalgamation at a meeting in Bay City a few wdays ago. The new organization will be known as "The Maccabees."

By combining the organizations, it is said, the expenses of administration will be greatly reduced and there will be a large saving in other directions. One State headquarters and one set of officials will hereafter take care of both bodies. Port Huron will be the State headquarters for Michigan, and Detroit will be headquarters for the world, it was announced.

It was stated that there would be no unusual change in the rates or by-laws of either society.

HIS BONES NEAR ROPE.

Man Missing Five Weeks, Hanged Self to Tree.

Centreville, Md., July 22.—In a thicket near his home at Winchester, the bones of Walter N. Eaton, 52 years old, captain of a bay vessel, who had been missing for five weeks, were found yesterday by his brother-in-law, James B Hess. Identification was possible only by the clothing which was found with the bones.

Suspended to a tree above the skeleton and clothing was a rope, with which Eaton is supposed to have hanged himself. None of those who visited the scene would venture to say when the body had fallen from the rope.

A coroner's jury, which was summoned after the remains had been removed from the thicket, gave a verdict of suicide.

Eaton is believed to have killed himself because of despondency over the tragic death on the Chesapeake Bay of two of his sons in the last 18 months. One son, Charles Eaton, met death in a collision between two vessels. The craft on which he was sailing ran into another vessel and when the mast snapped it fell on young Eaton, killing him instantly.

Last Christmas another son, Walter Eaton, fell from a vessel and was drowned between Seven-Foot Knoll and Sparrows Point. From that time Eaton brooded heavily.

When he disappeared from home five weeks ago relatives and friends made a search for him, but, finding no trace of him, even within a few yards of where his bones were found, they abandoned all hope of ever finding him alive.

THOUGHT HE WAS 'PHONING.

Dream Interrupted by Wife of Baltimorean.

Baltimore, Md., July 22.—"I had one of the most peculiar dreams of my life," said a resident of Northwest Baltimore after he had been promised that his name would not be disclosed.

"I dreamed that I was at my office," he continued, "and wanted to use the telephone. I took hold of the receiver, but for some reason I could not get it off the hook. I pulled and pulled, but the receiver refused to budge. While wondering what was the matter with the instrument and still attempting to dislodge it, I was awakened by my wife, who exclaimed:

"What is the matter with you, Billy, are you trying to pull my hair out by the roots?"

"Then I found that in my dreams I had caught hold of a contraption on my wife's head, such as women use in doing up their hair at night, and was yanking it vigorously. I know it hurt her."

JUSTICE JONES INDICTED.

Accused of Accepting Bribes from Illicit Liquor Sellers.

Newport News, Va., July 22.—After an investigation extending over several days, the Grand Jury in the Corporation Court of this city late yesterday returned thirty-five indictments against Justice of the Peace Harry F. Jones and three proprietors of alleged "dives" in "Bloodfield." Arrests on the indictments have been ordered.

Justice Jones is charged in five indictments with accepting bribes from Ike Solomon, confessed seller of liquor without a license. Solomon testified that he gave Jones weekly stipends for protection in his illicit sale of liquor.

J. J. Thomas, J. E. Tyree and H. C. Drake, all white, were indicted on charges of conducting gaming houses and selling liquor without a license. There are fifteen indictments against Thomas and fifteen against Tyree and Drake combined.

Commonwealth's Attorney Berkeley declared after the indictments were returned, that there is enough evidence on hand to convict the accused without the necessity of raiding the places.

This is the first time that the authorities of this cit yhave undertaken to enforce the one-mile jurisdiction right of the Corporation Court. The "dives" referred to are located just outside the city limits in a place called "Bloodfield." Gambling dens have been operated there since such "dives" were broken up here, nine years ago.

Mrs. Conrad Metzger of Cumberland, Md., while preparing breakfast for the home-coming of her husband, brewmaster of the Cumberland Brewery, at 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning, was attacked and criminally assaulted by a negro who had demanded food and for whom she was preparing a sandwich. The negro is still at large.

POTATO FAMINE.

Old Potatoes Necessary for Planting, But They Cannot Be Supplied.

Richmond, July 22.—The people of Richmond and vicinity are now in the midst of an old potato famine. Seedsmen and commission merchants are unable to furnish old potatoes for planting. There is an abundance of new potatoes for table use, but these are of no value in producing more.

One man has been found who thinks he can procure some old potatoes. He will be sought out by all who know him.

The first crop of potatoes was almost totally destroyed by the drouth, and people are now demanding seed potatoes for replanting.

THE EXPRESS IS IN THIS TOWN AND IN TO STAY

For seventy-five years—three-quarters of a century—the express has been the right hand of the shippers of commercial America. The Express came to Alexandria in 1850 and it came to stay. For sixty-four years it has been the right-hand of commercial Alexandria.

It is here to stay. The other day when reports went out that the express companies might retire from business, a protest went up. From whom this protest—the express companies? No! the merchants of the country—shippers everywhere—petitioned Congress that no action be taken that might have the effect of forcing the express companies to retire. Commercial organizations all over the land have joined in this appeal to Washington.

For seventy-five years in the past and for a good many more years in the future Express Service will mean

"About five years ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets after suffering from indigestion and constipation for years without finding anything to relieve me. Chamberlain's Tablets helped me at once and by using them for several weeks I was cured of the complaint," writes Mrs. Mary E. McMullen, Phelps, N. Y.

Woman's Duty to Herself.

Every woman owes it to herself to keep in good health. No one can reasonably be expected to maintain a cheerful disposition when half sick. Indigestion and constipation are two of the most common ills to which women are subject and fortunately are easily cured. Mrs. H. C. Getty, Indiana, Pa., writes: "Last summer I was advised by a friend to try Chamberlain's Tablets for indigestion and constipation. This medicine not only cured me of these disorders, but toned up my whole system so that my health has been better than for years since taking them." For sale by all dealers.

"This man must win!"
"He's the man who, from the beginning of time, has proved to the world that it can be done. You can check him but he'll come back and come back until you wreck him. He will is made of whalebone. It has snap but won't snap. Bend it as much as you please but watch out for the rebound! He'll thrive so long as he's alive. The length of his fight is the limit of his faith. It takes more than one hit to make him quit."
—Herbert Kaufman.
